Michael Mangan Music Workshops.

On Wednesday evening, we were lucky enough to have Michael Mangan share liturgical music with the students from both parish schools and a small group of parish musicians in the evening.

The students joined in the singing and actions with great enthusiasm and the parish musicians enjoyed an evening filled with song. Michael is a liturgist as well as a musician and he shared his expertise with us in both an entertaining and inclusive manner. I hope we will use some of Michael's work in further school and parish liturgies. Many thanks Fr. Joseph for providing the opportunity for us to learn more about this important music ministry
